Non-Real Estate Investment Related Litigation

Integra Realty Resources, etc. and et al. v. Fidelity Capital Appreciation Fund, et al.

U.S. Bankruptcy Court of Colorado
Plaintiffs' Counsel:

STRS Counsel: Irene Tamura, Deputy Attorney General

This is a class action, of which STRS is a likely member, filed against several hundred shareholders of Integra, a company now in Bankruptcy. STRS owned shares of Integra through its Extended Market Fund. Through a series of complex mergers, buyouts culminating on January 3, 1989, in a spin-off by Integra of the stock it owned in a subsidiary, STRS became the owner of 13,649 shares of ShowBiz Pizza with an assigned value of $156,000. (The original cost of the Integra shares which were replaced by the ShowBiz shares was $267,000. Thus, STRS suffered a paper loss of approximately $111,000.) This action, brought by the trustee for several creditors of Integra, maintains that the spin-off was a conveyance in fraud of the creditors. The payer is to reverse the transaction or to reimburse Integra for the value of the fraudulently conveyed asset together with attorneys' fees. As a result of a motion brought by a majority shareholder, the Bankruptcy Court has appointed counsel for Fidelity Capital Appreciation Fund who shall provide a defense on behalf of the class of defendant's. There is presently before the court a settlement offer which will be voted on by the class of defendants of which STRS is a member and subject to court approval. Without disrupting the pending settlement on file with the Court, recent cases have raised a possible defense of Sovereign Immunity which will be pursued by counsel for CalSTRS.

STRS QUARTERLY LITIGATION REPORT

CalMicro Devices Litigation (1995) STRS Counsel: Hogan & Hartson by Joseph Hassett. The federal trial court accepted the settlement proposed by the parties, which resulted in a partial recovery of damages and the savings of many millions of dollars in attorneys' fees. The former CEO of the company has been convicted of securities fraud and was ordered on December 8, 1998 to make partial restitution to the class by the conveyance of company stock valued at approximately $3.75 million and by the assignment to the class of the $2 million in proceeds of officers and directors insurance. This order is subject to appeal. In addition, the CEO is subject to personal liability in the original class action. Judge Walker heard arguments on our motion for Summary Judgement against the CEO on Thursday, June 3. Thereafter, CalSTRS and ColPERA entered into a tentative settlement agreement with the former CEO (Chan Desaigoudar) pursuant to which Mr. Desaigoudar would convey to all of the class all of the shares under his control. A token number of these shares (3.293% of the total) will be held back and returned to him if he is exonerated in the criminal case. ~~It is anticipated that this agreement will be finalized and sent to Judge Walker for his approval in October 1999.~~ A mediation has been scheduled in San Francisco on April 24, 2000 in an effort to resolve the issues that kept this settlement from being finalized.

NASDAQ Litigation (1997) STRS Counsel: Office of the Attorney General. This is a federal class action lawsuit originally filed in 1995. The case as currently filed alleges that the NASDAQ market makers—large brokerage houses—conspired to maintain an overly wide "spread" in the transaction costs associated with the trading of shares of stocks on the NASDAQ market. The spread in the transaction costs were limited to half points rather than quarter points, a practice that resulted in higher costs. The practice has been referred to as a form of price rigging and occurred from May 1989 to May 1994.

On November 9, 1998, a class-action settlement of $1.03 billion was approved by the Federal district court. As a member of the class, STRS will receive a portion of the proceeds from the settlement. CalSTRS settlement claim was filed on December 8, 1999, and the system will receive between $1-million & $3-million from the settlement. CalSTRS should receive the funds by the end of the year 2000.

EBS V. Barclays Global Investors, N.A. et al (1999) STRS Counsel: To be determined (class action) A class action has been filed in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware of which CalSTRS has been noticed as a possible defendant in this action. Plaintiff, EBS Litigation L.L.C. has brought action against all persons or entities who received at least 55 shares of the June 30, 1995 transfer of shares of Dave and Busters, Inc. as a result of a spin-off from Edison Brothers Stores, Inc. Plaintiff's allege that at the time of the spin-off, Edison Brothers Stores, Inc. was not legally authorized to give stock and that the stock was given without adequate consideration by defendants. Legal staff will monitor case.
